

Navigating Health Care Directives

A Workshop for All Christian Scientists

Many Christian Scientists have questions about the legal documents related to their care in case others will have to make decisions for them. What documents are needed? What questions should I ask now? Who should I be talking to? These questions and more are explored in a workshop presented by Wellsprings of Florida.

Saturday, February 17, 2018
Daytona Beach, FL

10:00 to 12:00 PM

- Understanding the need – “Unself” the purpose
- What about the law?
- Preparing for the conversation (where you are asking for help)
- Preparing for the conversation (where you see the need for help)
- You know what you want to do. What next?
